PUBLIC MRS. AND

Greetings:

Realizing that any announcement on our part is of interest to all those who walk on their feet, we attempt to publish this in the form of a confidential letter to let you know that we now offer you an opportunity to get on your feet at the smallest possible cost with little regard to that other great circulating medium -the coin of the realm.

Our sto, is in the hands of carpenters and will be for the next fen days. We know we should have offered these reductions below before they started but they slipped up on us, so there you are.

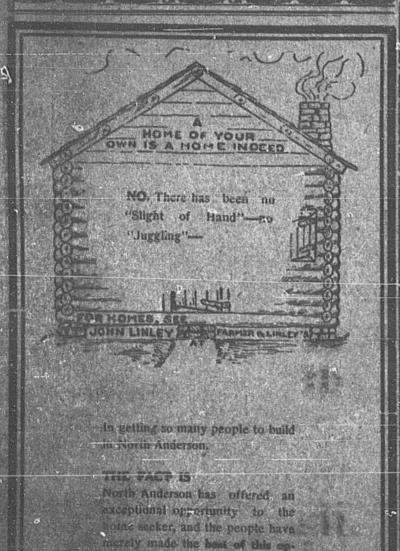

We remind you of the fact that our shoes have the largest circulation in ANDERSON COUNTY and are noticeable whereever people of good standing are seen, so take advantage of the denetions offered. And come early—hurry.

Textile Night School Men Had an Enjoyable Outing

Went Up To Clemson-Saw Ball Game-Inspected Textile School and Had Supper With the 900 Cadets-Will Do Much Good

There was a novel excursion out of Anderson yesterday. The textile night achool under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. took a trip to Clemson college to observe the workings of the textile school at that place. The trip was greatly enjoyed and no doubt wiil result in good of a permanent nature. Secretary Fred M. Burnett of the Y. M. C. A. was in charge of the arrangements and he wished to have the men who are studying to improve themselves observe the workings of the textile school. There were 125 in the party and the trip was made in automobiles.

Every member of the party scemed and developed. He is proud of the lasting good that it is doing.

The following members of the Y. M. C. A. had cars and carried visitors: J. M. Evans, C. E. Tribble, B. B. Gossett, W. L. Brissey, B. F. Mauldin, J. E. Stevenson, Archie Todd, W. W. Suilivan, C. W. Causey, Supt. Clark, J. D. Hammett, M. M. Mattison, R. J. Ramer, and there were several other cars in which friends from the city accompanied the party. The Brissy trick had 41 pascengers and the Townsend Lumber Company yesterday very generously turned over their big truck and helped to make the occassion a great success.

Every member of the party seemed to enjoy the outing although the roads were very dusty, and there had not been enough rain this spring to knooth out some of the winter ruis. Everything was taken in a fine spirit, oven when the Brissey Lumber Company's "biggest truck in the State" loaded with 41 passengers, broke inrough the bridge over Six and Twenty and there was quite a good natured scramble for terra firma. The truck was driven by that expert chaufter. Tarby, who handled the situation the city Last night by 9 o'clock.

The party, most of them, got to define the cocassion a great success.

The party, most of them, got to Clemoon in time to witness the baseball game, which was a listless extinition, as Auburn got a four-run lead by the second inning, and Clemson got, the final score hand was responsible for the two runs that Clemson got, the final score hand to be a second inning, and clemson got, the final score had 6 to 2. Clemson had three chances to break up the game with men on bases, but Clark, the seasoned pitcher from Auburn pulled out of the holes. He will go with the New Orleans professional club.

The Anderson visitors were shown over the college and inspected the textile plant, under the direction of Prof. Doggett head of the department Afterwards they were permitted to enjoy the formation of the cadel rest. father's absence. On his return home Parker atopped at the house where the deceased, Adger Daunis, colored, lived; and when he was in the act of laying the gur on the floor, it was accidentally discharged, the load taking effect in the negroe rags, just above the ankles, causing blood-poisining which later resulted in death.

Defore leaving, the party called upon B. Frank Mauldin to make a few remarks on behalf of Anderson. This he did in a most effective manner. He said that in the party of visitors were about a score of young men whom he touches at Sunday school and he wishes to vouch for them as being splendid young fellows. He is chairman of the educational committee of the Y. M. C. A. and is proud of the work that Secoretary Burnett is doing and wishes to see it continued.
